

101st Annual Meeting of the Association of Austrian Economists (NOeG)

Department of Economics, University of Graz

April 25th -26th 2019

The Department of Economics at University of Graz will host the 2019 Annual Meeting of the NOeG on April 25th-26th in Graz.

„Digital Transformation“

Digitalization has changed from a technical to a social phenomenon that affects many aspects of modern economies and societies. Improved information availability and processing capacities have fueled structural change that is comparable to changes during the industrial revolution. We will discuss these changes as far as we see and understand them already at our Annual Meeting 2019 in Graz

Keynote Speakers

Catherine Tucker

MIT Sloan School of Management

Willem Pieter De Groen

Centre for European Policy Studies

Paper Submission

We invite papers on the conference topic as well as all other fields of economics via <https://noeg-2019.uni-graz.at> to be uploaded between November 1st and January 15th. Notification regarding acceptance will be sent out by February 15th 2019.

Contributed Special Sessions

A number of Contributed Special Sessions has been accepted within the frame of the conference. Information about the Special Sessions can be found on the conference website.

Publication of Papers

Accepted papers may be published in a special conference issue of “Empirica – Journal of European Economics”. In case you would like your paper to be considered for the special issue please indicate this on the submission website.

Young Economists Award

The Austrian Economic Association offers a prize of EUR 750 for outstanding papers – to be presented at the conference – by economists up to the age of 35 years. In case of joint papers this age limit holds for all co-authors.

Registration

Please register at <https://noeg-2019.uni-graz.at> by March 31st. The conference fee amounts to EUR 100 (bank transfer) and is waived for NOeG members (membership is EUR 55 per year – see <http://www.noeg.ac.at>).