

CALL FOR PAPERS, 51st Meeting of the European Public Choice Society
April 2 – 5, 2024, Vienna Austria

The 51st Meeting of the European Public Choice Society will take place at the Vienna University of Economics from April 2 to April 5, 2024. The European Public Choice Society (EPCS, <http://www.epcs-home.org/>) promotes scientific research on the economics and politics of public and nonmarket decision-making, political economy, and the economics of institutions. About 300 researchers from different fields such as economics, political science, and other social sciences meet annually to discuss the current issues in all fields of Public Choice and Political Economy, in all their theoretical and empirical dimensions. The breadth of topics represented in the meeting can be assessed by consulting the conference program of the 2023 meeting, which took place in Hannover. The website of this year's conference can be found at <https://www.wu.ac.at/epcs2024/>.

Keynote Speakers

Zohal Hessami (Ruhr-University Bochum)
Ekaterina Zhuravskaya (Paris School of Economics)

Wicksell Prize

Every year, the EPCS awards the Wicksell Prize in honor of the Swedish economist Johan Gustaf Knut Wicksell, to the best paper presented at the annual meeting by a young scholar. To qualify for the prize, the presenter of the paper as well as all co-authors must be under 30 years of age as of December 31, 2023. The Wicksell Prize is sponsored by the European Journal of Political Economy.
