

Advertisement for 3 Tenure-Track-Positions in Economics at the Johannes Kepler University of Linz, Austria

The Department of Economics at the Johannes Kepler University of Linz is currently inviting applications for three tenure track positions for persons with a PhD and some job experience. The jobs are for 6 years initially. Job holders will receive a tenure-track agreement and will – after completion of these requirements – become Full Professors in Economics.

The successful candidates should have a PhD in Economics and also experience in research, excellent publications and experience in teaching. These three tenure-track positions will be offered for the following fields:

- Microeconomics
- Industrial Organisation
- International Economics

Moreover, we expect a good command of English, social competences, team spirit, and personal commitment. We offer a research-oriented environment provided by a highly-motivated team (www.econ.jku.at). Minimum wage for such a position (14x per year) is EUR 3590.70 per month, overpayment is possible.

The JKU seeks to increase the number of its female faculty and staff members. Therefore, qualified women are strongly encouraged to apply. In case of equal qualification, female candidates will be given preference

For further information please contact Prof. Rudolf Winter-Ebmer: phone +43 732 2468 7366, rudolf.winterebmer@jku.at.

Please submit your application until December 31, 2016 including CV, certificates and academic letters of recommendation to <http://jku.at/application> or to Johannes Kepler Universität Linz, Personalmanagement, Altenberger Straße 69, 4040 Linz. Please include the ad-number 3252 in your application.