Assistant Professor (Non-Tenure Track) for 6 years

TU Wien's Economics Research Unit invites applications for an Assistant Professor non-tenure track ("Universitätsassistent") in Macroeconomics for 6 years, 100%, to start no later than October 1, 2023. The position provides an outstanding opportunity for independent research as well as opportunities for collaboration with colleagues. The research environment is international and excellent, see econ.tuwien.ac.at.

Responsibilities: The successful candidate is expected to publish in top academic journals, contribute to joint research activities of the unit, and, participate in the teaching and supervision activities of the unit, but will have sufficient time to pursue her own research agenda.

Qualifications: For all candidates, solid research potential and achievements in Macroeconomics are essential. The successful candidate must hold a PhD in Economics or a related field at the time of employment, have high-quality research output (job market paper(s) and/or publications in international peer-reviewed journals) related to the field of Macroeconomics, be engaged in international research collaborations and show excellent command of English, very good communication skills and team competences.

We offer: TU Wien's Economics Research Unit offers a research-oriented work environment with a focus on research in Macroeconomics and related fields. We are part of the Institute of Statistics and Mathematical Methods in Economics at the Faculty of Mathematics and Geoinformation of TU Wien. We are based in the heart of Vienna, an international hub of research in Economics. TU Wien offers a wide range of internal and external training opportunities, as well as various career options.

Salary range: Entry level salary is determined by the pay grade B1 of the Austrian collective agreement for university staff. This is a minimum of currently EUR 4,351.90/month gross, 14 times/year for 40 hours/week. Relevant working experiences may increase the monthly income.

Application Procedure:

Stage one: Upload your application (PDF) at the TU Jobportal: jobs.tuwien.ac.at/Register/203532?culture=en.

Stage two (to be completed in conjunction with stage one – it is important that both stages are completed): Apply online at econjjobmarket.org/positions/9398.

Submission documents required: Cover letter, CV, at least one research paper, two or more letters of reference, teaching evaluations (if available).

Hint (!): Please ask your reference contacts to send a letter of recommendation to karriere@tuwien.ac.at if not already uploaded at econjjobmarket.org/positions/9398.

You may contact Alexia Fürnkranz-Prskawetz (afp@econ.tuwien.ac.at) for more information.

Application deadline: March 30, 2023

TU Wien is committed to increasing the proportion of women in particular in leadership positions. Female applicants are explicitly encouraged to apply. Preference will be given to women when equally qualified, unless reasons specific to a male applicant tilt the balance in his favour. People with special needs are equally encouraged to apply. In case of any questions, please contact the confidant for disabled persons at the university, Mr. Gerhard Neustätter (gerhard.neustaetter@tuwien.ac.at).
