

Call for Papers
Annual Meeting of the Austrian Economic Association
(NOeG 2015)

Klagenfurt, June 5th–6th, 2015

The organizers of the Annual Meeting of the Austrian Economic Association (NoeG) are soliciting papers for the 2015 conference, to be held in Klagenfurt, Austria, June 5–6, 2015. The main theme of the conference will be “The Future of the European Economic and Monetary Union: European Monetary and Fiscal Policies”. We invite contributions dealing with theoretical, methodological, empirical and institutional aspects of European monetary and fiscal policies. It is planned to publish a selection of papers in this area in the Society’s journal Empirica – Journal of European Economics (a refereed journal, listed in SSCI). Additionally, papers on all other fields of economics are also welcome as there will be general sessions. For details see <http://www.uni-klu.ac.at/vwl/inhalt/833.htm>.

SUBMISSION PROCEDURE:

Please submit a one-page abstract (compulsory – see submission homepage for layout instructions) and a first version of your paper (both pdf) by March 31, 2015 to <http://www.uni-klu.ac.at/vwl/inhalt/857.htm>.

Decisions about acceptance will be issued by April 20, 2015. We expect you to provide the final version of your paper by May 15, 2015. The NOeG Meetings are bilingual and you may submit your contribution either in English or in German. Authors interested in submitting their paper to the proceedings (English only, Empirica – Journal of European Economics) will be able to indicate this.

SPECIAL AWARD FOR YOUNG ECONOMISTS:

The Austrian Economic Association offers a prize of EUR 750 for outstanding papers of economists of age 35 or less. In case of joint papers, all co-authors have to fulfil this condition. Papers in all areas of economics are eligible. The best papers will be presented at the Annual Meeting. Authors who wish to be considered for the Special Award for Young Economists must indicate this.

REGISTRATION:

Registration for the conference will be possible via conference homepage as from March 15, 2015. The registration fee of EUR 55 will be waived for members of the Austrian Economic Association (NOeG). For membership information see <http://www.noeg.ac.at/>.
