

Austrian Labor Economics Workshop 2026 - Call for Papers

The 10th Austrian Labor Economics Workshop will be held at the Chamber of Labour (Arbeiterkammer) in Vienna this year. on Friday, 30th October 2026.

The aim of the workshop is to provide a forum for discussion of recent research projects in the broad field of labor economics. Contributions of empirical and theoretical studies are welcome, including topics related to labor markets, social policy, income distribution, migration, education, health, or gender economics. We want to bring together researchers working with a wide range empirical and theoretical approaches and adopting micro- and macro-economic perspectives.

The workshop offers room for an open and collegial discussion and welcomes preliminary or controversial research, submissions of complete papers and extended abstracts.

Please send a copy of your completed paper or an extended abstract per email to veranstaltungenWW@akwien.at.

The deadline for submissions is the 13th of September, 2026.

The selection of contributions by the organizers will be completed by 3^h of October 2026 and the final program will be published by the 6th of October.

We are planning presentations of about 20 minutes per paper plus some time for discussion. The exact number of presentation slots and the time frame will be determined by the organizers.

Registration for presenting and non-presenting participants will be open starting mid October. Detailed instructions will be announced later.

We are looking forward to welcoming you in October!
